

1. Traverser Equipment Summary

This equipment is a device to draw railroad vehicles into the factory, being comprised of frames, saddles, winches, remote controls, etc.

Before using this equipment, read the operation manual and other component instruction manuals enough, and make use of the equipment according to the exact usage.

